WE HELP YOU PLAN A CUSTOM GROUP TOUR

We offer hundreds of unique itineraries all over Europe, North America, South America, Asia, Australia and Africa. And we understand that there are times when only a custom tour will satisfy the needs of a group. That's why the Globus family of brands Custom Tour Department will work with you to create a custom tour itinerary that is as special as your group. If you have at least 20 travellers and cannot find the right vacation in our extensive portfolio, we will design a custom itinerary or themed vacation for your group, utilizing our world-wide buying power to provide the best value and exceed expectations. Your group will enjoy the same high-quality vacation you can expect from us, with the added benefit of it being uniquely designed just for them.

Is a custom tour the way to go?

A custom tour is a great alternative to consider when:

You have a minimum of 20 travellers who want to travel on a specific itinerary not featured in our brochures

You have a pre-formed group that has travelled together previously and wants something special

You have a pre-formed group that shares a common passion or interest

To allow us to design a custom itinerary to fit your standards and unique needs, it is helpful to consider:

YOUR BUDGET

Your Custom Tour Consultant will work with you to determine a realistic budget for your group.

PACE

Is your group interested in a leisurely vacation? Or a faster-paced sightseeing tour?

SPECIAL GUESTS

A professor, lecturer, spiritual leader, or any other special guest is welcome to accompany your group!

HOTELS

Hotels on tour must meet our brand and quality standards. We can work with you on specific hotel requests. Campgrounds, hostels, certain luxury resorts, and overnight coaching will not be considered.

TOUR DIRECTORS

A tour director will accompany each custom group and will be fully briefed on your group's unique needs, interests, and wants.

WHAT OUR CUSTOM TOUR CLIENTS ARE SAYING

"I like doing custom tours because I am able to tailor the trip to my travellers' preferences, with the assurance that accommodations, optional excursions and local guides will remain at the high Globus standards. Doing custom trips allows me to include some of my favourite side trips or destinations from my personal travels that are not always included in the existing Globus brochures. The Globus representatives in my custom department are always helpful. I appreciate their attention to detail, which makes me "look good" to my travellers! Thank you!"

- BETTY P.

"I've told all my tour members that it's the flexibility and patience of the Globus family of brands that gives us the incredible finished product. Because we are a performance tour, our needs exceed opportunities found in a brochure tour. Our performance venues are usually off the beaten path of the planned tours and the Globus family of brands accommodates us every time. Whenever I come to them with a suggestion for a place I'd like to visit or a restaurant I'd love to try, OR an upgraded hotel to please my clients/ singers/travellers, they say 'Let me get back to you,' and they do! The Globus family of brands tour specialists have become my friends! Thank you, Globus family of brands!"

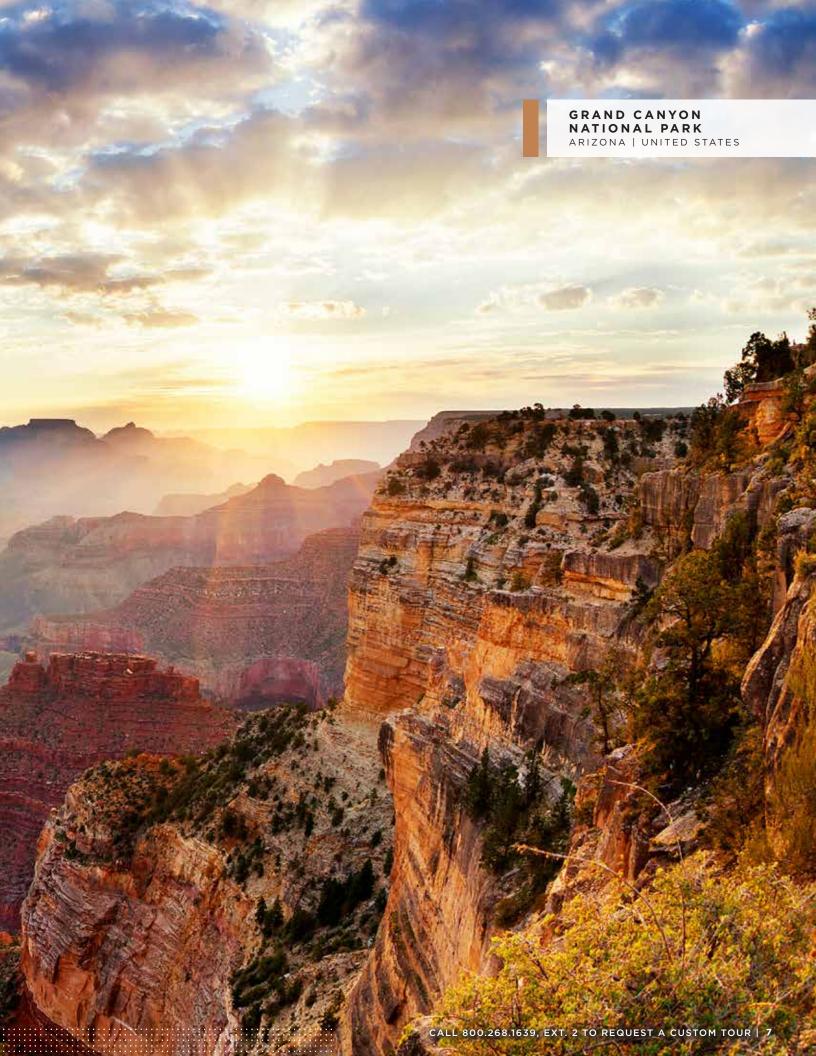

- PATSY M.

"Working with the Custom Tour Department of the Globus family of brands for the past 7 years has been a rewarding experience because they make my job as a tour operator so much easier. Custom tours, which require research of destinations, providing the client with the right hotels, itinerary and best guides can be challenging, but the Globus family of brands has the staff, both in Canada and Europe, to put a group tour together as requested. They have always provided me up-to-date information about changes in schedules, closings, and alternate visits before the tour is put into operation. When I choose to use the Custom Tour Department, I'm confident that my clients will be satisfied-and that's the bottom line!"

- KAREN B.

"Working with the Globus family of brands Custom Tour Department was very rewarding. I sent them a list of places that I wanted to visit and they made it come to life. All the concerns I had trying to plan a custom trip were left behind because the Globus team produced the tour exactly to fit my specifications. Thank you for your diligence!"
